

Nurse

Job Description

A nurse works with doctors to help people stay healthy and cares for those who are sick or hurt.

What they do

- Take a patient's temperature, blood pressure, and pulse.
- Give medicines and shots.
- Check for signs that show the person is sick or hurt.
- Take notes on medical information about patients.
- Create plans to help people stay healthy.

Where they work

- Hospitals
- Doctor's Offices
- Private Homes
- Nursing Homes
- Schools

Cool tools they use

- Stethoscopes (to listen to a person's heart or breathing)
- Blood Pressure Cuffs (to listen to a person's blood-flow sounds)
- Thermometers (to measure body temperature)
- Computers

Subjects they study

English Language Arts, Health, Math, and Science